Dear Mr. Calkins:

I appreciate your kind invitation to participate in a panel meeting on March 21. Unfortunately, I have a long standing engagement to be in Princeton on that date which will prevent my being with you and the members of your distinguished group.

Sincerely yours,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

The Honorable
Allen W. Dulles,
Director of Central Intelligence.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The Directors of the Educational Television Center of Ann Arbor, Michigan, are arranging a small off-the-record meeting on March 21 with a number of distinguished people interested in national problems for the purpose of discussing important public issues on which the Educational Television Center should develop programs for the information of the American people.

President Everett Case of Colgate University, one of the Directors of the Center, will serve as Chairman of the meeting. I, as one of the Directors, will participate, along with Harry Newburn, President of the Center, and one or two staff members. In addition, we have been fortunate in having acceptances from James Reston of the New York Times, August Heckscher of the Twentieth Century Fund, John Campbell of the Council on Foreign Relations, Eric Sevareid of the Columbia Broadcasting System, Field Haviland of the Brookings Institution, and Norman Cousins of the Saturday Review. We intend to ask several others to participate with us in this meeting.

I should like, on behalf of President Case, to invite you to participate in this discussion. The meeting will be held at the Cosmos Club in one of the private dining rooms on March 21, from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. We will expect to have a general discussion of the problem before, during, and following luncheon. We hope very much that you may find it possible to participate in this meeting. Your views will be especially helpful to those of us who are concerned with the education of the American people on public issues.

Sincerely yours,

STATINTL
